	services.
7	Grievances Redressal Mechanism at Bank
	In case a customer feels that there is deficiency in the service provided to him or bank has not provided any of the services as promised, the customer has following primary options for Complaints and all the Customers Complaints shall be resolved by the Bank within maximum period of 15 days from the receipt of the complaint:
	a) Contact your Branch –

	 i. The customers may contact the respective branch or the Branch Manager for immediate redressal. If the customer prefers to file a written complaint, it can be registered as per the format given at the end of this policy. The Branch Manager shall record the complaint in the complaint register and shall strive to redress the complaint. Branch Manager shall add the complaint in complaints register. ii. In case Branch Manager believes, complaints need interference of higher authorities the he shall refer to Head Office within 24 hours of receipt of Complaint. iii. The branch shall respond to the Complainant within a maximum period of 10 days of receipt of the complaint.
	 b) If the complainant does not receive a response from the branch within 15 days or if the complaint is not redressed to the satisfaction of the customer, the matter may be taken up at Head Office with Managing Director of the Bank who shall respond to the complaints immediately but within 10 days from the receipt of the complaint not being addressed or satisfied at Branch. Address for Complaints to Head Office shall be as under Chief Executive Officer The Citizen Co-op. Bank Ltd, Lakshdeep, Near Damodar Templs Vasco-da-Gama, Goa 403802 Email id-
	If the Customer is not satisfied with the reply then he can refer the issue to the Chairman of the Bank.
	c) In case the issue is still not resolved to the satisfaction of the customer, he/she may approach the Banking Ombudsman; address of the Ombudsman is available with the branches.
	d) Stipulations for filing the complaints before Banking Ombudsman
	 i. The complainant, before making a complaint to the Ombudsman, should have made a written representation to the Bank, and the Bank should have either rejected the complaint, or the complainant had not received a reply within a period of one month after the complaint was received by the Bank, or the complainant was not satisfied with the reply given by the Bank. ii. The complaint is made not later than one year after the complainant received Bank's reply to his/her representation or where no reply is received, not later than one year and one month after the date of the representation to the Bank.

 iii. The complaint is not in respect of the subject matter, which was settled or dealt with on merits by the Banking Ombudsman in any previous proceedings, whether or not received from the same complainant or along with one or more complainants or one or more parties concerned with the subject matter. iv. The complaint does not pertain to the same subject matter for which any proceedings before any court, tribunal, arbitrator or any other forum is pending or a decree or Award or order has been passed by such court, tribunal, arbitrator or forum. v. The complaint is not frivolous or vexatious in nature. vi. The complaint is made before the expiry of the period of limitation prescribed under the Indian Limitation Act, 1963 for such claims.
DISPUTE REDRESSAL MECHANISM: TECHNOLOGICAL PRODUCTS
 Complaints regarding failed ATM transaction are grouped as under: - a) Our Debit Cards used at our ATMs attached to the branch of issue. b) Banks Debit Card is used at our ATM's not attached to the Branch of issue c) Other Bank cardholder using his card at our ATM d) Banks Debit Cards used at other Bank ATM's In terms of Reserve Bank of India guidelines, the wrongful Debit in the customer's account on account of ATM failed transactions shall be reversed within 7 working days from the date of receipt of complaint from the customer, failing which a penalty at Rs.100/- for each day of delay shall be credited to the customer's account along with the disputed amount. Any customer is entitled to receive such compensation for delay, if a claim is lodged with the issuing bank within 30 days of the date of the transaction. If the customer prefers the complaint after 30 days but within 60 days the claim will be settled without compensation through our Dispute Management System (DMS) package. The claim referred after 60 days but within 120 days, known as good faith claim, is settled through NPCI. All disputes regarding ATM failed transactions shall be settled by the issuing bank and the acquiring bank through National Payment Corporation of India only. No bilateral settlement arrangement outside the dispute resolution mechanism available with the system provider is permissible.

 Exception transactions are those that cannot be reconciled or reported as erroneous by a card holder. Members should collaboratively endeavor to settle discrepancies in settlement, if raised by other member banks, and all such discrepancies should be resolved amicably.
Charge Backs:
It is obligatory on the part of the card issuer member to resolve and settle all adjustments pertaining to the cardholder transaction arising out of error, within 120 days after date of original transaction provided if a claim is lodged with the issuing bank within 30 days of the date of the transaction.
The card issuer member shall furnish all documents in support of cardholder's transaction dispute. If the acquirer member bank, does not honor the cardholder dispute, the acquirer member bank shall submit a representation within 60 working days after the charge back initiated date.
A charge back form may be submitted by an issuer to NFS in response to a cardholder dispute using the appropriate form. NFS will in turn forward the charge back form to the concerned member bank after making necessary adjustments in the daily settlement report.
Credit/Debit Adjustments
Acquirer Member Bank should take appropriate measures to adjust cardholder balance arising out of error, identified during EOD balancing. However, it is obligatory on the part of all acquirer Member Banks to submit adjustment details along with appropriate documents to NPCI, within 30 working days after the settlement date of the original transaction. An issuer bank may at its discretion accept an adjustment beyond the specified period.
NFS will in turn forward the adjustment form to the concerned member bank after making necessary adjustments in the daily settlement report.
Representment -
An acquirer member bank shall submit a representment to reverse a cardholder's dispute. The Representment shall be submitted within 60 working days after the settlement date of cardholder's dispute along with all relevant documents. The document should be sent to the card issuer member bank and in case the card issuer member bank does not respond the same within 5 working days from the date of dispatch, NPCI reserves the right to reverse the representation.

	 Bank shall take structured customer meets to give a message to the customers that the Bank cares for them and values their feedback/suggestions for improvement in customer service. Many of the complaints arise on account of lack of awareness among customers about bank services and such interactions will help the customers appreciate the banking services better. The feedback from customers would be a valuable input for revising our product and services to meet customer requirements. Branch shall have Customer feedback register for the same.
11	Alerting the operating staff on handling complaints
	Our staff will be properly trained for handling complaints. During all the Training Sessions, the importance of handling complaints is explained to all the participants and they are trained to deal with customer complaints. Bank will ensure that internal machinery for handling complaints/grievances operates smoothly and efficiently at all levels. Customer grievance policy adopted, approved by the Board and published in Banks website.
12	 The complaint received by the chairman will be examined through the branch concerned HO and will be informed to the complaints Management committee of the Board will review the unresolved complaints on half yearly basis and give the direction/ decisions on the complaints.
